Calling application for the UGC Sri Lanka- International University of Japan PhD/Masters Programme

The UGC jointly with the International University of Japan (IUJ), Japan has launched a co-sponsored scholarship programme for the benefits of the members of the academics and administrative staff of universities under the UGC to complete their postgraduate studies at IUJ.

International University of Japan will admit up to a maximum of 2 Doctoral (PhD) candidates for its Doctoral (PhD) programmes and up to a maximum of 5 candidates for its Master's Programmes for the year 2018 under this scholarship programme. International Relations Program (IRP), International Department Program (IDP), and Public Management and Public Program (PMPP) for masters; and International Relations, Economics and Public Policy clusters for Ph. Ds are available at IUJ under this MoU.

The selection of candidates will be jointly made by the UGC and the IUJ subject to the satisfaction of the requirements set out by each institution.

Academics and administrative officers of the Universities and other Higher Educational Institutions under the UGC who are entitled for paid study leave for the purpose are eligible to apply for both PhD and Master's programme while administrative officers are eligible only to Master's programme. (More information about the postgraduate programmes offered by the IUJ is available at its website: <http://www.iuj.ac.jp/admis/>)

This scholarship will cover the total tuition fees of the academic programme and monthly living stipend of JPY 80,000 per candidate.

The application process involves the following two successive stages:

1. Application for admission to IUJ via online
2. Application for partial support from UGC
