Extension of the Validity Period of the Advertisements published for the Academic Posts

Please be informed that the UGC is receiving plentiful requests from the Higher Educational Institutions/Institutes to extend the validity period of the advertisements published for staff vacancies due to the delay in finalizing staff selections as a result of COVID-19 pandemic situation.

Therefore, the validity period of the advertisements published for the academic posts, specified in Commission Circular No. 846 and Establishments Circular Letter No. 13/2008, will be extended till 31.01.2022, subject to the condition that such extension is applicable only for the advertisements of which expiration of initial/extended validity period falls on or after 01.06.2021.

Further, please take action to expedite the staff selections as much as possible.

This letter is issued subject to covering approval of the Commission.
