At least the minimum marks laid in the Marking Scheme for Associate Professorship.

Method of Application

An application for a merit promotion or recruitment should be accompanied by - the Curriculum Vitae of the applicant, a) a self-assessment of his/her whole career specifying the contribution to: b)

Teaching and Academic Development

Research and Creative Work

Dissemination of Knowledge and University and National Development as given in the attached marking scheme.

three copies of the publications, research papers and other relevant documents by the candidate. Other relevant documents and materials may also be submitted in c) three copies in a form that can be evaluated.

titles of three (03) outstanding research papers/publications by the candidate. d)

These documents shall be sent to the Vice Chancellor by each candidate with a covering letter applying for the position/promotion.

The Senate shall appoint two (02) experts in the relevant field from outside the higher educational institution concerned to evaluate the applicant's contributions to Research and Creative Work (Sections 2 and 3.1 of the marking Scheme). Both the experts shall be Senior Professors/Professors of a University in Sri Lanka or a recognized University abroad or an expert who has held professorial rank at a recognized University or a professional of equivalent outstanding eminence from outside the University System.

The outside subject experts should not have been teachers/supervisors of the candidate at postgraduate level. Nor should they have been coauthors of papers or books with the candidate or previously at the university concerned in any capacity such as teacher or other staff member, or visiting staff.

perts should assess the research and creative work of the applicant based on the papers, and other ments submitted by the candidate and they should allocate independent marks based on the Marking eme. The experts should be specifically requested to comment on the quality, impact of research on discipline, profession, industry and wider community based on the papers, publications, reports and ther documents submitted by the applicant, with special reference to the three (3) outstanding papers as claimed by the applicant. The same panel and experts shall serve for all applicants whenever possible.

The Senate shall appoint a Panel of three (3) Senior Professors/Professors with specialty in the relevant field and the Dean of the relevant Faculty to evaluate the Educational Activities and Dissemination of Knowledge & Contribution to University & National Development (Sections 1 and 3.2 of the Marking Scheme). Whenever possible this Panel should include at least one person from outside the Institution and one from within the institution but outside the Faculty. The Dean of the Faculty shall chair the Panel. However, if the Dean of a Faculty is the applicant, an additional Senior Professor/Professor shall be appointed to the panel and a suitable Chairman shall be elected in his place by the members of the panel. Where the relevant Department Head is not the candidate and is not appointed to the panel, he shall be an observer. This Senate appointed Panel while allocating marks should submit a report to the Selection Committee regarding the applicant's teaching ability, service to the university, profession, industry, national development, community etc. and leadership qualities. The Panel shall request the applicant to make a presentation on a topic chosen by the applicant to assess the teaching and overall communication abilities of the candidate.

The Vice Chancellor shall announce the candidatures of all applicants to the academic community of the University. The self-assessment, publications and other supporting documents of each candidate shall be made available through the relevant Dean for a period of 30 days and shall be open to written comment addressed to the Selection Committee through the Vice Chancellor from Senior Professors, Professors, Associate Professors and Heads of the relevant Faculty.

Where the assessment cannot be completed within the year and a half limit of Circular 846 for advertised positions, steps shall be taken immediately upon the expiry of the period to re-advertise the post. Assessments made under previous advertisements may be continued but the final selection cannot be made until all applicants, both past and new, have been assessed.

Method of Selection

Candidates with the required qualifications shall be requested to appear before a Selection Committee. The Selection Committee shall consist of, as stipulated in Section 6(2) of Commission Circular 166:

- The Principal Executive Officer who shall be Chairman
- Two nominees appointed by the Commission,
- Two nominees of the University Council who were appointed to the Council by the Commission,
- The Dean of the relevant Faculty,
- The Head of the relevant Department,
- Two Senior Professors/Professors appointed by the Senate either from within or outside University from among its members with knowledge of the subject at least at degree level.

Provided:

- Where the Head of the Department of Study concerned is himself an applicant for the post, or where the Department of Study has no permanent Head, the Senate or the Academic Syndicate as the case may be shall appoint from among its members a person with knowledge of the subject of study concerned in lieu of such Head of Department.
- Where the Dean is a candidate, the Senate will appoint another suitable person in such Dean's place.
- Where the Vice Chancellor is the candidate, such Vice Chancellor shall withdraw from all relevant meetings of the Senate and the Council and these bodies shall decide on matters under their purview under a pro tem chairman appointed for the relevant meeting. A Chairman of the Selection Committee from outside the Institution concerned shall be nominated by the Commission in addition to the two nominees of the Commission.

ry applicant shall appear before the Selection Committee and make a presentation on his/her main a of research or creative work. Audio visual, multimedia facilities etc. may be provided for the resentation. This may be followed by a discussion with the Selection Committee. The Selection Committee shall arrive at a score on a scale of 10 for a candidate's presentation skills.

The Establishments Division of the University shall handle the processing of applications. Where one of the two outside subject experts gives marks above the minimum threshold to a candidate and the other does not according to the table given in Section 4.0 of this Circular, the Registrar or other person from the Establishments Division processing applications shall arrange for a discussion (in person or electronic) between the two subject experts with a view to reaching a consensus. Failing a consensus being arrived at, a third subject expert shall be appointed by the Senate. Whether a candidate is above or below the threshold shall be decided by whether the third subject expert gave marks above or below the threshold as in the table in Section 4.0 of this Circular. The final marks of a candidate shall be the averages of the total and component marks given by the two Subject Experts and Panel or, where a third Subject Expert had to be appointed, of the third Subject Expert and that Subject Expert of the first two Subject Experts who assigned the highest total marks to the candidate, and the Panel.

Where there are more than one candidate obtaining the minimum threshold marks as defined in the table at the end, the final selection will be made by the Selection Committee from among those reaching that minimum threshold. This shall be done based on the final marks from the marks submitted by outside subject experts and the Senate appointed Panel, and on the presentations made by the applicant, with 90% weight for the combined marks from the subject expert and panel assessments (90 being assigned to the candidate with the highest marks as assessed by the subject experts and panel and the other candidates' marks being scaled accordingly) and 10% for the assessment of presentation skills by the Selection Committee.

Appointments on merit promotion will be made on 'personal-to-the-holder' basis.

A candidate whose application is rejected by the Selection Committee could apply again for merit promotion only after the expiry of two (2) years from the date of his/her earlier application.
